

My name is Jessie Vasquez and I want to be the next Associate Treasurer of Beta Alpha Psi and Accounting Society.

I want to take on the challenge of being an officer because I see it as an enormous privilege to give back to the organization that has given me the opportunity to succeed.

I understand the responsibility that the position holds, and I understand that it is more than just getting food for every meeting. To be an officer means to be a leader, a role model, and a mentor.

I know that I can be a great leader. Leadership to me means to be available, kind, and humble, this is something that I have always tried to be.

I want to be a role model for all of my peers not because I think I am smarter or somehow innately special, but because I know that I am imperfect.

I want to be a mentor to the members who will be taking the same steps I have taken: pledging for Beta Alpha Psi, writing a résumé, going to firm tours, going to Meet the Firms, going to interviews, and being the treasurer for the pledging class.

What I can bring to the position is an open-mind and a light-hearted demeanor. I don't take myself too seriously, and I have never taken anything for granted. Everything that I have, I have earned by myself. I have had to work hard to get myself through school, and I want to help those who want to succeed. I know how to use QuickBooks, and I have been responsible for money that wasn't mine before.

These are the reasons why I want to take on the challenge of being an officer. I think I am good for this position because my heart and my mind are in the right place. I want to be the kind of leader that goes above and beyond to motivate members to be the best that they can be. Through my experiences these past few years, I know what it takes to be successful.

Whether or not I become elected to be Associate Treasurer, I just want to say that I appreciate everything Beta Alpha Psi & Accounting Society stands for. This organization is all about helping each other out, and I am all for that.

I wish you all success, I hope you all achieve your goals, and I hope you find happiness no matter where your paths and careers lead you.
